IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear son and brother, James Thurman Gibson, who died 2 years ago today, July 17th, 1944.
Our family circle is now broken,
One we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our midst
Which never can be filled.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent, the voice we loved to hear;
'Tis sad but true, we wonder why,
The best is always the first to die.
We who loved you, miss you sadly
As from dawn to dusk we sorr;
In our lonely hours of misery
Thoughts of you are ever near.
To you dear son, know we shall meet again.
Where parting is no more.
And that the one we loved so dearly
Has only gone before.

Postwar 'Miracle' Will Soon Become a Reality

SAN FRANCISCO. — One of those promised postwar miracles — telephone conversation between automobiles and regular subscribers — will become a reality in San Francisco within the next two months.
Lyle M. Brown, Pacific Telegraph and Telephone company division manager, has disclosed workmen are erecting a transmitting antenna atop the telephone building for the new service.
Initial auto telephone service will be conducted on an experimental basis, beginning in June.
Eventually the company plans to install facilities which will permit truck drivers to talk to their home offices, passengers to converse from car to car or to regular subscribers and drivers to place calls with vessels in mid-ocean.

Relief Shipments Will Set Record

Desperate Efforts Are Made To Get Out Wheat.

WASHINGTON. — Sec. of Agriculture Clinton Anderson said recently that the United States will set a world record for food relief shipments.
In a coast-to-coast broadcast, sponsored by the American Dairy association, he said "the next five weeks will witness the greatest single movement of a food commodity in world history."
"The nation is engaged, he said, in the final push "toward fulfillment of America's promise to export 400 million bushels of wheat by the end of the current wheat marketing year, June 30.
"We are making a desperate effort to get every last bushel of wheat that we can possibly ship right now in the most critical part of the famine period. As a result of this record movement housewives temporarily may not be able to buy all the bread and flour they want in their stores during the next few weeks," he said.
Anderson said two-fifths of the world's total exports of all food grains for the months of July 1945-46 will consist of wheat from American farms.
Exports of the 1945-46 crop year will approximate one-third of the nation's total crop, he said.
The exports, in addition to causing temporary shortages of bread and flour, now will result next year in less pork, leaner beef and fewer poultry and eggs because of the feed shortage.
The secretary mentioned the importance of the dairy industry's part in the famine relief program. "During the first three months of this year," he said, "200 million pounds of canned milk and 100 million pounds of powdered milk were sent abroad for relief purposes, mainly for women and children.

Germans Admit to Orders Against Taking Prisoners

DACHAU, GERMANY.—Three officers and six enlisted men of the 6th SS Panzer army, which is accused of murdering at least 276 American prisoners of war, testified that they had been ordered to take no prisoners in the Ardennes offensive of December, 1944.
Lt. Heinz Tornardt, in a statement read to the American military court, said: "I told my men they were not permitted to take prisoners. Then I told them they were not to shoot at prisoners who waved their steel helmets."
This, he said, was a precaution against shooting Germans who were American uniforms; they had been ordered to wave their helmets if captured.

Uncle Sam's Tars Like Bell Bottoms, Chief Says

WASHINGTON. — Uncle Sam's sailors have demonstrated such affection for their bell bottomed trousers and their familiar blues and whites that the navy may reconsider plans to change uniforms.
Vice Adm. L. E. Denfeld, chief of naval personnel, said it would be at least 18 to 24 months before the tars' garb is altered—if at all.
Many enlisted men, he told the house appropriations committee, don't like the proposed more streamlined uniforms and "most officers and men would like to get back to blues and whites, instead of blues, grays, whites and khakis."

Raid Gambling Outfit; Get Assorted Prisoners

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Vancouver detectives raided a Chinese gambling establishment recently and took a strangely assorted group of prisoners.
Occupations listed by the 20 Chinese arrested included: "An instructor of the bagpipes;" "a barn flute player;" a "singer," a "dog-catcher;" and a "Mr. Books."
Only one of the defendants called himself "a gambler."

Uncle Sam Says

Supposing you and your neighbor met at the street and actually did and said the things you see going on in this scene. You probably would say "Quit your kidding, Uncle Sam. They must be two other fellows, not me and Tom." Actually, friend, there are not enough consumer's goods for the dollars Americans own. There is more need now than ever before for you to save every dollar possible from the buying market. Buy only what you really need. Put every extra dollar into United States Savings Bonds.

3,000 Miles of Trails Planned in California

SAN FRANCISCO.—Without dissent, the California legislature has authorized spending $300,000 to start work on a 3,000-mile system of horseback and hiking trails extending in a huge loop from the Mexican border to Oregon and back, via the Sierra foothills and the shores of the Pacific.
The ambitious project will take some 10 years and $2,000,000 to complete. It will lead riders through giant redwood forest, semi-desert and flowered plain, beside trout streams, over foothills of historic gold-rush days, along coastal ridges and sandy beaches.
But for all its modern wrinkles such as automatically closing gates to woo the goodwill of cattlemen and a system of rustic hostels every 20 to 30 miles, principal sponsors of the project contemplate the job with the leisurely air of sportsmen.

Operations for Stomach Removal Good 89 Times

BOSTON, MASS. — Dr. Frank H. Lahey, director of the Lahey clinic, recently reported 89 successful operations in which the patients' stomachs were removed completely.
Addressing the Massachusetts medical society, Dr. Lahey said the gastrectomies were done to remove cancerous or other growths.
One patient, whose stomach was removed eight years and seven months ago now is alive and well, Dr. Lahey added. He said a "substitute stomach" is provided for these patients through a loop in the intestines.
Dr. Lahey also advised people past middle-age who have indigestion that lasts longer than a week to submit to x-ray examinations because "they may be suffering from ulcers or cancer."

Longhorn Stopped When He Met Up With Barbed Wire

HOUSTON, TEX. — A coffee mill and a grindstone helped corral the longhorn, beginning what today is a 15 million dollar annual business.
During the Civil war, a rangy Texan tried to keep wild herds of cattle from trampling his orchard. He wound up binding nails to galvanized wire. And barbed wire, which in 1945 consumed 234,000 tons of steel, was born.
First manufacture of barbed wire began in 1874 when an old coffee mill was used to fashion the barbs, and a grindstone crank furnished power to twist the wire.
Concerned cowmen worried about tearing the hides of their precious steers, reports Steelways magazine. Then, it was difficult to see how three thin strands of wire could stop a half-ton steer.
But even the most skeptical were convinced by demonstration. Last year enough barbed wire was produced to encircle the world 60 times.

Here's Way to Avoid Waiting in the Line

ST. LOUIS, MO. — The guard at the federal income tax office here walked up to the man with crutches.
"Here, mister," he said, "folks like you and women with children don't have to stand in line."
The man hobbled painfully to a desk where his return was quickly made out.
Outside the federal building, he tossed the crutches on his shoulder and strode off, whistling.

New Man-Made Fiber Expected to Be Stronger

Fortisan, a new, man-made fabric, is expected to be the strongest material yet developed. Although the textile is still being studied, it probably will find its first use in foundation garments. It would have the advantage of nonshrinkage and would omit the necessity for the linings ordinarily needed in these garments. They should wear exceptionally well because of the unusual strength of the fortisan fiber.
Fortisan was made possible by a special chemical process which allows acetate fibers to be stretched to a very fine yarn. This stretching lines up the chemical molecules in such a way that they have great affinity for each other, thus accounting for the extra strength. Research is being done to find a method of weaving which will keep the yarns from slipping at seams and other points of strain.
Fortisan was created during the war for making parachutes which could lower heavy metal equipment.
